

A DECADE OF PROGRESS

PROBATION'S SUCCESS WITH JUVENILE REALIGNMENT

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2017

8:30 am to 9:00 am

WELCOME

- Karen A. Pank, Executive Director, Chief Probation Officers of California

OPENING REMARKS

- CPOC President, Chief Mary Butler, Napa County Probation

9:00 am to 9:15 am

SHARING FEDERAL AND STATE PERSPECTIVE ON JUVENILE JUSTICE

California's chief law enforcement officer shares his insight on what he is observing both within California and on a national scale as emerging trends and challenges in juvenile justice reform.

- Attorney General Xavier Becerra

9:15 am to 9:30 am

PERSPECTIVES ON THE TRANSFORMATION OF JUVENILE JUSTICE REFORM IN CALIFORNIA

- Chief Jim Salio, San Luis Obispo County Probation
- Video:
 - David Steinhart, Director, Commonwealth Juvenile Justice Program
 - Chief Stephanie James, San Joaquin County Probation
 - Chief Laura Garnette, Santa Clara County Probation
 - Chief Lee Seale, Sacramento County Probation
 - Chief Allen Nance, San Francisco Juvenile County Probation
 - Frankie Guzman, Director, CA Juvenile Justice Initiative, National Center for Youth Law

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2017 CONTINUED

9:30 am to 10:30 am DEFINING THE SIGNIFICANCE OF SENATE BILL 81

What did Senate Bill (SB) 81 exactly do and how did it start the transformation of juvenile justice in California? Hear from a leading Juvenile Justice Expert on this topic and gain perspective from probation on what SB 81 sparked across the state: alternatives to incarceration, specialty courts, emphasis on outcomes, adoption of risk & needs assessments and evidenced based practices just to name a few.

- Introductory Remarks: Chief Lee Seale, Sacramento County Probation
- Nancy Campbell, Former Special Master, Farrell Litigation

10:30 am to 10:45 am BREAK

10:45 am to 11:30 am GOING FROM A CAMP TO A CAMPUS – WHAT DOES IT TAKE?

Los Angeles County Probation is embarking on a transformation starting with its Campus Kilpatrick by adapting the Missouri model of juvenile treatment specifically for older teenage youth into a LA model. The program will focus from day one on how to transition youth back to their family and community while emphasizing education, trauma informed care, treatment and vocational programming in order for youth to be successful upon their return to their home communities.

- Introductory Remarks: Chief Terri McDonald, Los Angeles County Probation
- Sheila Mitchell, Chief Deputy, Los Angeles County Probation
- Harry Grammer, Founder/President, New Earth
- Patricia Soung, Director of Youth Justice Policy, Children's Defense Fund- CA

11:30 am to 12:00 pm WHAT IT MEANS TO ME – YOUTH VOICE AND THE LIVED EXPERIENCE IN SAN FRANCISCO CITY AND COUNTY

- Introductory Remarks: Chief Allen Nance, San Francisco Juvenile County Probation
- Daniel K., Young Adult
- Calvin P., Young Adult

12:00 pm to 1:00 pm LUNCH – GENERAL NETWORKING

1:00 pm to 1:30 pm JUVENILE COLLABORATIVE REENTRY TEAM: A TEAM APPROACH TO COMMUNITY REINTEGRATION

With a focus on transition and aftercare services for youth returning to the community from out of home placement or its Log Cabin Ranch, San Francisco Juvenile Probation built an unprecedented collaborative model program in partnership with their Superior Court, the Public Defender's Office and the Center on Juvenile and Criminal Justice. The model established a collaborative team approach in the development and implementation of reentry plans for youth with an emphasis on partnering with community organizations for the transition and aftercare components of the model once the youth returns home.

- Chief Allen Nance, San Francisco Juvenile County Probation
- Tony Hurley, Deputy Probation Officer, San Francisco Juvenile County Probation
- Kwanza Morton, Supervising Probation Officer, San Francisco Juvenile County Probation
- Lisa Randall, Deputy Probation Officer, San Francisco Juvenile County Probation

CONFERENCE AGENDA

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2017 CONTINUED

1:30 pm to 2:00 pm

JUVENILE JUSTICE FACILITIES IN THE 21ST CENTURY – SHASTA COUNTY PROBATION'S JUVENILE REHABILITATION FACILITY

Shasta County Probation has maximized state and local funding to open a new facility incorporating the latest evidenced based strategies. Learn how the probation department avails itself of validated assessment tools to determine if a youth should be detained and then additional assessments to identify the criminogenic and treatment needs, strengths and challenges of the youth. Through increased collaboration between the probation officer and the juvenile detention officer, as well as further engagement with the family and community providers, Shasta Probation works with the youth and family on goals developed upon review of the assessments.

- Introductory Remarks: Chief Steve Bordin, Butte County Probation
- Chief Tracie Neal, Shasta County Probation
- Sarah Till, Juvenile Rehabilitation Facility Division Director, Shasta County Probation

2:00 pm to 2:15 pm

BREAK

2:15 pm to 3:00 pm

VIEW FROM THE COURT ROOM – OBSERVATIONS FROM THE BENCH

Judges rely on a myriad of reports, assessments, relationships and observations to determine the appropriate disposition of a case. The collaboration and partnership by all in the court, most critically the youth, and all who serve them, is paramount. Hear the perspectives of judges on what the most pivotal reforms have been over the last ten years, how they perceived these changes, and what is still to come.

- Moderator: Chief Brian Richart, El Dorado County Probation
- The Honorable Patrick Tondreau, Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court, Santa Clara County Superior Court
- The Honorable Stacy Boulware Eurie, Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court, Sacramento County Superior Court
- The Honorable Dylan Sullivan, Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court, El Dorado County Superior Court

3:00 pm to 3:30 pm

WHAT IT MEANS TO ME – YOUTH VOICE AND THE LIVED EXPERIENCE

- Introductory Remarks: Scott Budnick, Founder/President, Anti-Recidivism Coalition
- Angelo Ramirez, Young Adult
- Angelo Chavez, Young Adult
- Aaron Kincy, Young Adult
- Jack Morris, Young Adult
- Bryan Trudel, Young Adult
- Antonio Wellington, Young Adult

3:30 pm to 3:45 pm

BREAK

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2017 CONTINUED

3:45 pm to 4:15 pm

VIEW IN THE COMMUNITY – OBSERVATIONS FROM THE ADVOCATES

The last ten years have seen statewide adoption of risk and needs assessments, incorporation of trauma-informed care, expansion of family engagement and alternatives to detention by probation departments and other partners in the juvenile justice system. This session will give time for community reflection on what more can be done and emerging strategies deserving of attention.

- Moderator: Chief Fernando Giraldo, Santa Cruz County Probation
- Frankie Guzman, Director, CA Juvenile Justice Initiative, National Center for Youth Law
- Jennifer Rodriguez, Executive Director, Youth Law Center
- Lenore Anderson, Executive Director, Californians for Safety & Justice

4:15 pm to 4:30 pm

SUMMING UP DAY 1 AND A LOOK AHEAD TO TOMORROW

- Chief Mark Hake, Riverside County Probation

CONFERENCE AGENDA

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2017

8:30 am to 8:45 am

WELCOMING AND OPENING REMARKS

- Chief Stephanie James, San Joaquin County Probation
- Video: Recent Supreme Court decisions in juvenile justice have cited work led by Dr. Laurence Steinberg about the development of the adolescent brain. Newer research indicates adolescent brain development can last far past the legal age of adulthood. What role does this research play in forming public safety policy and will this emerging research guide future juvenile justice policy or even affect how we view and rehabilitate young adults? This short video with Dr. Steinberg conveys his thoughts on brain development and justice involved youth.

◦ Dr. Laurence Steinberg, Ph.D

8:45 am to 9:45 am

HOW FAR CALIFORNIA'S STATE SYSTEM HAS COME – THE EVOLUTION OF THE DIVISION OF JUVENILE JUSTICE

Taking a 10,000-foot view of the Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ), formerly the California Youth Authority, this morning session will review where DJJ was at the start of the reform and highlight all the reforms that have taken place within DJJ to make it the treatment focused institution it is today for California's youth exhibiting the most serious criminogenic behaviors.

- Introductory Remarks: Scott Kernan, Secretary, California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation
- Chuck Supple, Director, Division of Juvenile Justice
- Christienne Sanders, Associate Director, Division of Juvenile Justice
- DaiNette Bowens, Commissioner, Board of Juvenile Hearings

9:45 am to 10:15 am

WHAT IT MEANS TO ME – YOUTH VOICE AND THE LIVED EXPERIENCE IN SACRAMENTO COUNTY

- Introductory Remarks: Chief Lee Seale, Sacramento County Probation
- Ivan Carrillo, Young Adult

10:15 am to 10:30 am

BREAK

10:30 am to 11:30 am

THE NEXT DECADE OF JUVENILE JUSTICE

Chief Probation Officers share their perspective on what's next in juvenile justice reform. Chiefs will share what they are observing as the most pressing needs of youth coming into the juvenile justice system today and what California needs to do in order to prevent further entry into the criminal justice system as well as reduce initial entry into the juvenile justice system at the local level. Hear their presentation on where we go from here.

- Moderator: Marisa Lagos, Journalist, KQED
- Chief Mary Butler, Napa County Probation
- Chief Jim Salio, San Luis Obispo County Probation
- Chief Stephanie James, San Joaquin County Probation
- Chief John Keene, San Mateo County Probation
- Chief Mark Varela, Ventura County Probation
- Chief Allen Nance, San Francisco Juvenile County Probation

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2017 CONTINUED

11:30 am to 12:00 pm CALIFORNIA AS A LEADER IN JUVENILE JUSTICE

- Introductory Remarks: Chief Mary Butler, Napa County Probation
- Governor Brown

12:00 pm to 1:00 pm LUNCH – GENERAL NETWORKING

1:00 pm to 1:45 pm INFORMING THE CIVIC MINDED – DOES MEDIA PLAY A ROLE IN POLICY REFORM

Did media attention contribute to the passage of Juvenile Justice Realignment? Has the success of Juvenile Realignment helped lay the groundwork for other criminal justice reforms in California? How does the public view the government's role to rehabilitate justice involved youth? Join members of the California media as they tackle these questions and share how those working with youth can better engage and educate the public on juvenile justice matters.

- Marisa Lagos, Reporter, KQED News
- Robert Greene, Editorial Writer, Los Angeles Times
- Greg Moran, Reporter, San Diego Union Tribune

1:45 pm to 2:00 pm WHAT IT MEANS TO ME – YOUTH VOICE AND THE LIVED EXPERIENCE IN SUTTER COUNTY

- Introductory Remarks: Chief Donna Garcia, Sutter County Probation
- Steven W., Young Adult
- Matt Trezza, Deputy Probation Officer III, Sutter County Probation

2:00 pm to 2:30 pm ADDRESSING THE ACUTE NEEDS OF YOUTH AND THEIR FAMILIES IN THE LEAST RESTRICTIVE SETTING

What happens when you combine community based treatment and behavioral health clinicians with intensive probation supervision - a reduction in the number of youth detained and the length of detention. Learn from Sacramento County Probation about how they are stabilizing placements and reducing homelessness; increasing school attendance and achievement; increasing vocational training and employment; reducing psychiatric hospitalizations; and reducing juvenile detention by incorporating a multi-faceted approach to alternatives to detention.

- Chief Lee Seale, Sacramento County Probation
- Pamela Hassen, Senior Mental Health Counselor, Sacramento County Juvenile Justice Diversion and Treatment Program
- Amy Fierro, Chief Program Officer, River Oak Center for Children
- Mike Shores, Assistant Chief Probation Officer, Sacramento County Probation

2:30 pm to 2:45 pm CLOSING

- Chief Jim Salio, San Luis Obispo County Probation