UNDERSTANDING AND ADDRESSING IMPLICIT BIAS IN THE JUSTICE SYSTEM

Implicit bias is the automatic association we make between groups of people and stereotypes about those groups. None of us are immune to this and under certain conditions, these automatic associations can influence behavior, making people respond in biased ways even when they are not explicitly prejudiced. This training will demonstrate that it is possible to mend the harm that racial stereotypes do to our minds and our public safety and offer ways to address it.

This course will be available starting September 1, 2021

STC Credit: 2 Hours

Cost: $40 ($37.50 STC Tuition + $2.50 Registration Fee)

UNDERSTANDING MENTAL ILLNESS IN CORRECTIONS

The intersection of mental health and the behaviors leading to the justice system are at times difficult to distinguish. As a result, more and more officers working in communities and detention centers are often faced with individuals diagnosed with mental illnesses. This training for officers and personnel in the criminal justice system in anticipation of the range of psychological challenges, diagnosed and undiagnosed, they are likely to encounter in their daily work.

North Region - February TBD

Juvenile Place Core curriculum was developed to be consistent with the flow of the placement process once a youth is ordered into foster care placement through termination of a case, including information about extended foster care. The course material is presented in a way to meet the needs of various learning styles with a mix of lecture, short videos and discussions, practical skill building activities and small group discussions. Content is comprised of technical, practical tasks mixed in with some of the adaptive skills needed in a placement probation officer. The course is comprised of five modules, over two weeks.

CHILD AND FAMILY TEAM MEETINGS: FACILITATION TRAINING

This training provides participants with the basic knowledge and skills to facilitate a Child and Family Team (CFT) meeting. Utilizing the Integrated Core Practice Model (ICPM) as the foundational guide for CFT meeting facilitators, trainees will learn: 1) key elements of team meetings for safety and case planning 2) procedural basics of team meeting facilitation 3) the role and skills needed to be an effective CFT facilitator 4) structured problem-solving and solution-focused dialogue within team meetings. Although probation is not required to complete the Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths (CANS), probations' involvement of sharing and receiving foster youths' information from the CANS are crucial components in assisting in the safety, permanency, and well-being of foster youth. This course will provide an overview of CANS and cover the main areas that are applicable to probation.
